WAVE Poster Competition

Can you create a cover design that will appeal to students?

COMPETITION RULES:

- The competition is open to Washington State high school students. The student does not need to be enrolled in an art class or be competing for a WAVE scholarship to enter.
- Purpose of the Design: Promote the WAVE scholarship program to appeal to students. For details about the WAVE program, visit our website at <http://www.wtb.wa.gov/WAVEWebpagenew.asp>.
- Each entry must be an original design, created by an individual student or a team of students, and signed off by an instructor. The design cannot have been previously entered in another competition.
- Posters entered for the competition should measure 9"x12". Any weight of paper is permitted. Slides or color copies may not be substituted for original art work.
- While any medium may be used to produce the poster, please keep in mind that it will need to be reproduced on paper.
- Each poster must be submitted on a 9"x12" piece of poster board or cardboard, with an official entry form firmly attached on the back.
- There is a limit of one entry per individual or team, however there is no limit on the number of entries per school.
- Entries should be submitted to WAVE Poster Competition, c/o Workforce Training and Education Coordinating Board, PO Box 43105, Olympia, WA 98504-3105, and be postmarked no later than February 20, 2009. Multiple entries may be mailed together.
- Proof of posting does not constitute proof of receipt.
- In submitting a poster, student agrees that the poster may be displayed at various conferences, or in publications, promotional materials, and electronic format on the Workforce Board's website.
- The Workforce Board reserves the right to publish any of the entries submitted, with credit given to the student.
- Judging will take place in March 2009, and the winner notified in April 2009.
- The winning design will become the WAVE poster for 2010 and will be used as the cover for the 2010 application. The applications will be circulated to schools, skill centers, and community and technical colleges across the state. The winning design will also be posted on the Workforce Board's website at www.wtb.wa.gov, along with the winner's photograph and bio.
- The judges will base their decision on a mix of originality, artistic skills, craftsmanship, and relevance to the subject matter. Their decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
- The Workforce Board regrets that entries cannot be returned.
